

The person who will be editing and adding events should use this account... which has a lot of restrictions. They can only edit pages and posts with the author set to this account... “eventsadmin” if you create a post and want them to be able to update it.. simply change the author to “eventsadmin” you are an admin so you can edit anyone’s posts...

Creating a new post/ for an event... The best thing to do is just CLONE one that I already did... This will make a copy of what I did and then just change the content to the new event... Or you can hit create new and start from scratch... but you will need to fill in all the areas needed... SEE IMAGE BELOW...

When you create new posts for the events you need to check the category Napa Events Do not add your image to the content.. upload it to the featured image spot at the bottom right of the page.

To add rows to the Napa Events Page follow the image below...
